

Anti-Vibration Holders and Adapters

A range of anti-vibration components is available from ISCAR. Included is an extension of the existing "IHAXF." dampening holders and an extension of the "RE" reducer line.

The advantages of ISCAR's anti-vibration components include improved accuracy, surface finish and tool life and the ability to bore deeper applications, thereby improving productivity.

